In 1894, a boy had to learn to act like a man.

Daisy's 1894 B·B Gun teaches the same lessons.

Back then, a kid had to grow up fast. He was expected to learn marksmanship and gun safety at an early age.

Today, you can learn the same lessons with the Daisy 1894 B•B Gun, a "Spittin' Image"™ of the frontiersman's carbine.

It has the same side-loading port, lever action, sights, and thumb-back hammer safety. It's not a toy. It's a B•B gun.

And now you can learn marksmanship with the exciting Daisy B•B Target-Trap.

It's a $4 value, now yours for only $1.99 when you buy any Daisy B B Gun. Take the coupon below to your store when you buy.

For even more fun, pick-up our booklet, "The Air Rifle Marksman," where you buy your Daisy. It's only 50c.

Learn the lessons of the old West with the Daisy 1894! Or choose from over 30 other models of Daisy B•B spring-air, CO_2, and pellet guns.

Since the 1800's, American boys have learned marksmanship with a Daisy. Now it's your turn.

Daisy B·B Target-Trap. $1.99

with purchase of any Daisy B•B Gun.
A $4 value.

The kit includes: Trap frame to catch B•Bs / Targetex rubber backstop / Daisy Air Rifle Manual / Full set of NRA 15-foot match targets / Full set of "Pop-Out Bullseye Targets" / (See the Bullseye "Pop-Out" when you hit it!)

DATELINE: ADVENTURE

J-1989

Dear Joe:

In the September issue of ADVENTURE, it was announced that, beginning with issue #425, the mag would be given over to characters who do not at present have their own comics. This letter is, therefore, an attempt to give you guys at DC my personal opinions concerning Adventure's future development.

If I had my way about it, I'd return ADVENTURE to its rightful owners, The Legion of Super Heroes. Frankly, however, I don't expect that to happen. So I will list some of the features I'd like to see in ADVENTURE.

1) A series of Deadman stories by Neal Adams (who else?) and preferably written by Denny O'Neil.

2) A series of Justice Society of America stories. Again, preferably continued stories of three or four parts.

3) How about team-ups? A few suggested team-ups would be Flash and the Atom, Aquaman and G.L.—Creeper and Wonder Woman. Get the idea?

4) Some stories of your lesser known or rarely used characters such as:

1. Challengers of the Unknown
2. Doom Patrol
3. Dial H For Hero
4. Plastic Man, etc.

5) How about a series starring Johnny Double?

Frank Murphy, Warwick, R.I.

Dear Frank:

Thanks for your suggestions, and though we have already decided on our course for Adventure for the current issues, your suggestions are well taken, and don't be surprised if some of them should pop up in future issues. In the meantime, Captain Fear will be one of our star attractions, as well as some other goodies we've got lined up for you. Keep an eye out—if anything, ADVENTURE should be of constant interest. About the Legion—they are already appearing in each issue of SUPERBOY.

* * * * *

Dear Editor:

I just had to write you about ADVENTURE #423. What are you guys in the art department doing? I doubt that it's very much. Supergirl looked fine, but what about her co-stars? Since when can you see Batman's eyes through his mask? Not to slight the other J.L.A. members, they looked real bad, as well.

Jim Harris, Memphis, Tenn.

* * * * *

Dear Joe:

Though much better than last issue's unqualified Supergirl disaster, "Treachery" left much to be desired. Bob Oksner's original light cartoony style was indeed out of place in a serious feature, but now he's over-compensated to a ridiculous extent. His inks are now so detailed that, particularly with a detailed penciller like Mike Sekowsky, everything is just one big mess. As if that weren't enough, everything is out of proportion. Let's just take the splash panel, depicting the Justice League (which Sekowsky drew for years, so he doesn't have any excuse of unfamiliarity), G.L. looks like a vacant-eyed idiot. Batman looks like an idiot in a Halloween mask, and Aquaman's face has apparently been smashed into a brick wall.

The story was nothing to rave about either. Aliens invade Earth and try to get control of the Justice League. The ending wasn't too bad, but I, for one, would like to see fewer explorations of alien psychology and more adventures with ordinary Earth people.

Richard Morrissey
Framingham, Mass.

Dear Richard:

Okay, but didn't you at least like the letters page? Actually, we agree that perhaps some of the J.L.A. characters were not really themselves, but couldn't you also admit that since this was an alien scheme . . .

* * * * *

Dear Joe:

There was only one thing I would have changed in #423 of ADVENTURE—the artist. Mike Sekowsky does not draw any of the characters as well as Tony DeZuniga.

The story was marvelous, though. Although I do like the relevance stories, I can still see the merit and get enjoyment from a pure fantasy story. The alien's plot to conquer the Earth provided a neatly done escape from the typical kind of ideas, and I did like it.

The only real disappointment came when I turned to the back and there was no Zatanna story. She is one of your better features, especially with Gray Morrow and Dick Giordano artwork. Please be sure she isn't left out again.

I was pleased to hear that after all this time Supergirl will be in her own magazine. She deserves it. Not only does she have excellent writers, etc., but the space vacated leaves room for currently 'unemployed' heroes. When can we expect to see Supergirl's new mag? I'll be looking forward to it.

Gail Burt, Temple City, Calif.

Dear Gail:

You have by now bought the first of the new Supergirl mags, and have read the back feature Zatanna story. If Zatanna is to remain or leave is up to her new editor, Robert Kanigher. As for the New Adventure Comics—let's get a sampling as to reader opinion on it so we can have a letter col in our next issue. Until then, remember the address is: DATELINE: ADVENTURE c/ o National Periodical Publ., 909 Third Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022

Never finished high school?

Now you can get a diploma without going back

You already know why it's important to have a high school education. You've probably learned the hard way that it can be pretty difficult to get the kind of job you want without one. No matter how hard you're willing to work.

What can you do about it?

Maybe you've thought of trying again to get a diploma. But you've suffered enough classroom "battle fatigue" to last you a lifetime. So you'd hate to travel that route again even if you could.

But what if we told you that there was now a much better way to get a high school education? An adult way, which gives you regular high school subjects and your choice of practical vocational subjects which help you get started in one of a number of profitable fields.

That's the unique Wayne School way. You do your reading and assignments in your spare time, in the relaxed atmosphere of your own home, and "turn in" your completed assignments by mail. You don't have to give up your present job. You don't have to study or travel to class at inconvenient times.

And you needn't be afraid of dropping out all over again, if you had trouble with school before. Wayne's specially prepared lessons make even difficult subjects much easier to take. And Wayne grades your assignments in private, by mail. You're free from competitive classroom pressures. You stay relaxed, and your progress is much smoother.

If you're 17 or over and not now in school, send the coupon below to receive — by mail — Wayne's free booklet "How to finish High School at home." Wayne will also be glad to ask its local representative to contact you and answer any other questions you may have about finishing high school at home. No obligation.

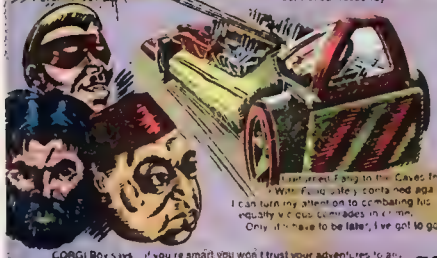
The Adventures of CORGI Boy

It was midnight. I was going about 210 mph in my Corgi Adams 4 Engined Dragster, hot in pursuit of my old arch enemy Dr. Fang in his Ford GT 70. Fang, who had just escaped from the Glacier Caves prison where I had put him only three weeks ago, had committed another heinous crime.

But by the time I regained my composure and speed, Dr. Fang had had time to reach his hideout and change cars. This time he would be even harder to catch in his Porsche 917. However, from a previous encounter with Fang along this very road, I recalled a risky but negotiable shortcut and was able to intercept Fang and immobilize him and his car with one blast from my dash-controlled freeze ray.



Apprehend Fang to the Caves frozen state. With Fang safely contained again, I can turn my attention to combating his equally vicious comrades in crime. Only this time I have to be faster, I've got to go now.

Ford GT 70

He sabotaged the Orbit XII Pluto shot. Just as I was about to overtake him, I hit an oil slick and skidded out of control tumbling over and over landing in a ditch. Fortunately, I was uninjured and my CORGI was undamaged; it's practically indestructible.

WHAM! - NOW IT'S YOUR TURN TO DRY UP AND BLOW AWAY!
OH, MAC! YOU ARE A REAL MAN AFTER ALL!

CHARLES ATLAS, World's No. 1 Body Builder, says:

Don't Be Half A Man!

Let ME SHOW How I Can Make You a Real HE-MAN From Head to Toe — in Just 15 Minutes a Day! Take a good honest look at yourself! Are you proud of your body — or are you satisfied to go through life being just "half the man" you could be? No matter how ashamed you are of your present physical condition — or how old or young you are — the "sleeping" muscles already present in your body can turn you into a real HE-MAN! Believe me, I know — because I was once a skinny, scrawny 97-pound half-alive weakling! People used to laugh at my build and make fun of me. I was ashamed to strip for sports or the beach . . . shy of girls . . . afraid of healthy competition.

WIN THIS VALUABLE TROPHY

HOW I CHANGED FROM A "MOUSE" TO A MAN!

One day, I discovered a secret that changed me from a timid, frightened scarecrow into "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man" — a "magic formula" that can help turn you, too, into a marvellous physical specimen . . . a real HE-MAN from head to toe . . . a man who STANDS OUT in any crowd! What's my secret? "DYNAMIC-TENSION" — the natural method! No theory. No gadgets or contraptions. You just do as I did. Simply take the "sleeping" muscles already present inside your own body — build them up — use them every day in walking, bending over, reaching, even sitting! Almost before you know it, you're covered with a brand-new suit of beautiful, rock-hard SOLID MUSCLE!

MY SECRET BUILDS MUSCLES FAST!

Just 15 minutes each day in the privacy of your room is all it takes to make your chest and shoulder muscles swell so big they almost split your coat seams . . . turn your fists into sledge-hammers . . . build mighty legs that never tire! Mail coupon today for my famous book showing how "Dynamic-Tension" can give you a Body by Atlas. Charles Atlas, Dept. 81B 115 E. 23 St., New York, N. Y. 10010.
